Plan to see this NEW celebration of

JULY FOURTH

SIX BATTLESHIPS TO HELP IN CELEBRATION

Honolulu will be "invaded" on July 1 by six big battleships of the United States navy, which will arrive here just in time to take part in the record breaking military tournament and gymkhana to be held at Kapiolani Park July 3, 4, and 5.

Bringing 1600 naval reservists from the Atlantic coast, also the midshipmen of the Annapolis naval academy, the squadron, which consists of ships of the second class, including the Connecticut, New Hampshire, Kansas, Minnesota, South Carolina and Michigan, will be another drawing card to help make the Fourth of July crowd here on those days the largest ever assembled in the Islands for a similar celebration.

Among the Honolulu boys who are midshipmen at Annapolis and will arrive with the squadron for a visit in their "home town" are Paul C. Wirtz, John McGrew Cooper, Merion Lord, Holbrook Goodale, Ronald Higgins, Cagood Lovekin and Richard W. Dole. It is expected that they and the naval reservists will be seen in a big parade here on the Fourth.

Posters advertising the military tournament and gymkhana to be staged July 3, 4 and 5 at Kapiolani park by the Hawaiian department and the American Legion, making it the biggest Fourth of July celebration ever seen in the Islands, were distributed today by the publicity committee.

By the close of this week, every city, village, plantation and crossroads in the Territory will have the posters on display. The Inter-Island, which has expressed its willingness to do everything possible to make the big event a success, is displaying the posters on all its wharves in the Islands, and plantation managers, both in the sugar and pineapple sections, are displaying them to good effect. They are also being placed in the pay offices of all the plantations. In addition to the posters in English, a special number in Chinese and Japanese is being prepared.

A revised program of the tournament is being drawn up by the Hawaiian department and will be made public within a few days.
